

Equitable Land Title Group Ranks Fourth in List of Largest Baltimore Title Companies

Equitable Land Title Group, a Baltimore-based title company that now serves customers nationwide, ranks fourth among the largest title companies in the Baltimore Business Journal's Book of Lists.

Baltimore, MD (PRWEB) May 8, 2008 -- Equitable Land Title Group (ELTG) has been serving customers nationwide since last year, but that doesn't mean they have lost any focus on doing business in their hometown of Baltimore, Maryland. The group recently ranked fourth among the largest title companies in Baltimore for the Baltimore Business Journal's Book of Lists.

The Baltimore Business Journal's Book of Lists is an annual publication that includes essential information on the leading buyers, businesses and employers in Baltimore. The book provides a look at the local economy, including contact information and important facts for top businesses, industries, professions, governmental units and nonprofit organizations. Making the list of top title companies in the Baltimore area is an honor for ELTG, whose star has been on the rise in recent years. After the demand for their services led the company to expand nationwide last year, they're clearly still on top of the local market.

ELTG provides comprehensive real estate title and settlement services, thanks to their industry-leading technology and a team of highly resourceful problem solvers. The company serves homeowners, mortgage lenders and the real estate community with an efficient Web-based ordering and processing system that ensures greater accuracy and faster turnaround. Their commitment to service, coupled with leading technology, has enabled them to expand their business nationally.

"We are a technological leader in the title industry while making all of our clients feel as if they are our only client," according to Steven Lenet, Director of Operations.
